The Board yesterday posted for service Carlos S. Weaver and refused exemption to Joe Alexander. This makes a total of 72 men who have been taken. It is thought possible, however, that this may be cut down quite a bit by the recent ruling of President Wilson.

ACCIDENT AT DAM

Results in Death of Harvey Penn, Colored, and Serious Injury to Walter Snelling, Another Negro—Three Others Receive Slight Injuries But Resume Work.

One man was fatally injured, another probably died, and three others received minor injuries when a part of the old dam caved in at the Government dam just above this city yesterday about 8:30 o'clock.

A force of men was at work tearing out the old cofferdam which is of no use now, when some of the timbers let go and five of the men who were working at that point were caught in the big slide of dirt, rock and timber which followed.

Assistance arrived immediately and it was found that three of the men escaped with only slight injuries, while Harvey Penn and Walter Snelling, both colored, were found to be injured quite seriously and were removed to the office of the Bates, Rogers Construction Company nearby. Drs. Quigley and Taylor were summoned and after giving the men a hurried examination discovered that both were suffering from internal injuries and their chances of recovery small. They were removed to the Haywood Hospital in this city, where they both underwent operations in the hopes of saving their lives.

Penn rallied following the operation but grew worse shortly after dinner and died. His remains were removed to the undertaking establishment of McIlvain, Knox & Diener and prepared for burial, after which the body was taken to his late home on the Lexington pike, from which place the funeral will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment in the Maysville Cemetery.

Snelling was still alive when the Ledger went to press this morning and it is thought that he may recover.

WILSON SOON TO GIVE ANSWER TO PEACE PROPOSAL

Washington, August 27—Signs were in evidence today of the dispatch of President Wilson's reply to the peace proposals of Pope Benedict at an early date. Officials freely conceded the probability of the early completion of the communication indicating that the President and Secretary Lansing at least have agreed upon the basic features of the reply so that what remains to be done is to put these ideas into diplomatic language. It is understood that rough drafts of some of the important points already have been prepared.

So far no authorized statement has been forthcoming as to the nature of the reply. Officials even deprecate speculation concerning it and there has been formal denial of a published report that Secretary Lansing had informed some of the Entente diplomats that Pope Benedict's proposals would be rejected.

A SENSATIONAL LOVE ROMANCE "One Day" which is the startling and sensational love romance of the century, and a sequel to Elinor Glyn's famous "Three Weeks" is the special feature at the Pastime this afternoon and evening. A big feature photoplay presented at bargain prices, 5 and 10 cents. Don't miss it today at the Pastime.

UNCLE SAM

Will Help Families—Dependent To Be Ample Provided For Through War Insurance Bill.

Washington, August 26—Those young men in Kentucky who would like to go into the army but who fear that wives and children may be left destitute if they do so may feel reassured by some new legislation which the Government is going to put through soon.

This is no less than the Government's war insurance plan, which includes, among other things, provision for the maintenance of a family left at home by a soldier. This bill may be passed this week.

Under the plan, a man with three children, enlisting as a private, can assure himself pay at the rate of $18 a month when in foreign service and can assure his family and children $25.50 a month on which to live.

In fact, the Government will compel men enlisting in the army to allot not exceeding one-half of their pay to their dependents and the Government will, in turn, add to it about twice as much for their support.

For the present, at least, married men having wives and children dependent on them, will be exempt, but this does not mean that they will be exempted permanently. At the rates at which the registration lists are being exhausted, it would not surprise many to see the draft officials specify, at the next call, that a man must have children dependent on him as well as a wife, before he can be exempted. If the war should go beyond the three-year period, the length of time which war department officials believe will take to crush Germany, then all able-bodied men citizens of military age may have to put themselves at the service of the Government.

Under the conscription law, no man between 21 and 31, who is able-bodied and a citizen of the United States, is exempt from the military service. It is only through regulations promulgated by the President, which may be withdrawn at any time, that exemptions were made for men with dependents.

There is every reason to believe, therefore, that if the line of dependency is drawn too close on this draft quota by men seeking to escape service, it will mean that the regulations will be so strict next time that many men who ought to go will be forced to take up arms. It is the old fault of volunteer system cropping out in the selective draft. The red blood of the country pours itself out willingly and without hesitation while snickers hang back and survive.

TO HONOR DRAFTED MEN

Limestone Lodge No. 36 K. of P., one of the leading fraternal orders of our city, is making plans to entertain those of its members, as well as those of surrounding lodges, who have been drafted and will leave soon for Camp Taylor, Louisville. A committee is now at work making arrangements for a big banquet and smoker to be held at Castle Hall within the next few days. It is planned to have several good speakers present at that time and to give the boys a rousing send-off. Those who have been drafted out of the membership of the local lodge thus far are Messrs. Horace Hornback and Henry Helmer. Neither claimed exemption. It is expected that there will also be quite a few present who have been drafted from surrounding lodges.

In Police Court yesterday afternoon Richard Browning of Bracken county was fined $5.00 on a charge of being drunk. In default of the cash he was sent to jail.

PLANS FOR TOBACCO FAIR

Discussed by Committee at Chamber of Commerce Yesterday—November 22-24 Fixed As Dates.

A meeting of the Corn and Tobacco Fair Committee was held in the committee room of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday morning.

The date agreed upon is November 22, 23 and 24. The Secretary was instructed to communicate with the William Beck and Sons Company requesting their representative to meet with the Committee and submit plans and figures for arranging and decorating booths. It has been suggested that all those that intend to have exhibits at this fair, regardless of the nature of the article, begin immediately to prepare same. Especially are the tobacco growers requested to set aside the best of their tobacco to be picked for samples.

Mr. F. L. Hendrickson and C. S. Kirk were appointed to take care of the advertising for the fair.

The Secretary was instructed to correspond with the Gus Sum's Amusement Company relative to obtaining some free vaudeville acts for the fair.

These medals will be made in the semblance of the State Capitol, having a center with faces of four heroic Kentuckians grouped around it. On the opposite side will be the teacher's name and the inscription "Awarded to for great patriotic service to the State of Kentucky and to the Government of the United States in teaching illiterate soldiers during the world war 1917."

WANTED
FIFTY MASON COUNTY FARMER BOYS, BETWEEN THE AGES OF 10 AND 18 YEARS TO JOIN OUR MASON COUNTY HEIFER CLUB

Believing that the future progress and prosperity of Mason County depends upon the continuing development of its Agricultural interests and the business efficiency of our future Farmers, with the hope of being able to aid in those directions, we have decided to organize a Heifer Club for the Farmer Boys of Mason County.

ABOUT THE FIRST OF SEPTEMBER, 1917, we are going to purchase Fifty Grade Shorthorn Heifers, about eight months old and weighing about 400 pounds, which we will distribute among the first fifty Mason County Farmer Boys, between the ages of 10 and 18 years, that apply for and agree to care for same and that can execute a bankable note covering the cost of the Heifer, which note shall be payable in the fall of 1918.

The Heifers will be bought by expert cattlemen connected with the Extension Service of the State College of Agriculture and be distributed among the boys by lot. Each boy will be given the same chance to make good, and required to become a member of the Mason County Boys' Agricultural Club and to care for the Heifer under the directions of the County Agent; to have the Heifer bred to a pure bred Shorthorn Bull, this fall, and to have her and her offspring ready for public exhibition and sale in the fall of 1918.

You will not be expected to put up a cent of money now; but, you must properly care for the Heifer and pay for it later and all the increase and profit will be yours.

About $100 will be given away in prizes to the boys getting the best results, with their Heifers, at the exhibition to be held in the fall of 1918.

For full particulars call at Bank or see Mr. E. F. Boyd, Jr., County Agent, at once, as we want to close entries to the club by September 1st.

We are anxious to help Boys that are willing to work and learn.

HOOVER'S HARD TASK

Food Administrator Hoover proposes (1) "to eliminate vicious speculation, extortion and wasteful practices and to stabilize prices;" (2) to guard our exports so as to retain sufficient home supplies while helping to feed our allies; and (3) to prevent waste in the kitchen and elsewhere. Work in the second and third direction has already begun and progress has been made. Plan 1, the prevention of speculation and extortion and the fixing of prices, now to be undertaken, is the most serious problem, in comparison with which the other two are relatively easy. England, after long wrestling with price fixing, is said to have really succeeded only where its government controlled production and thus insured a continuous supply, in other cases a serious difficulty being found in the withdrawal of supplies from the market and secret sales to those willing to pay more than the legal price.

That our government has England's experience in mind seems to be indicated by the announcement that it has "already perfected the plan whereby it will buy as much of the wheat crop as becomes necessary." Mr. Hoover proposes not punishment but regulation of speculators and extortioners, but the one, if effective, would seem necessarily to involve promise of the other. Light needs to be turned on all food stored up for higher prices, whether in great barns, cold storage or other warehouse. The problem is one of great difficulty and it may be that only a partial solution will be reached. But the effort is imperative and the government is doing only its plain duty.

THE WIVES OF SOLDIERS

The wives of officers in our new army are made secure by their husbands' sufficiently large salaries, but what of soldiers receiving $30 a month? When it was found that the plan to exempt married men would have to be abandoned, it was proposed to send to war only married men without children, and it seems to have been taken for granted that a childless wife could live on what her soldier husband could send her out of his small salary. Some newspaper editors even thought that the husband could send his wife $25 a month and retain only $5 for himself. This figuring was easy but failed to take account of stubborn facts. Even a soldier who is fed and clothed would be compelled to have more than $5 a month for necessary expenses, and even if he could spare $25 a month his wife could hardly exist on that amount in these times unless she earned money herself, which would be impossible in many cases.

This problem demands attention. Government provision for soldiers' wives, so that they will not become objects of charity, would appear to be imperative. The proposition is more justifiable than the existing system of pensioning the real or alleged widows of soldiers who fought half a century ago, and undoubtedly the matter will receive official consideration. As the national government is already overburdened with pressing problems and enormous expenses, the State governments could well afford to take this matter up and assume this small share of responsibility.

A distinction ought to be made between the war's actual costs and the vast loans to our allies representing investment on which interest will be paid. Failure to do this largely accounts for the fact that the staggering totals tend to take the average citizen's breath away. Merchant vessels will also return an income, while coast defenses, naval construction, etc., may be regarded as in large part investments for the future extending beyond the duration of the present war.

STOMACH TROUBLE

Mr. Marion Holcomb, of Nancy, Ky., says: "For quite a long while I suffered with stomach trouble. I would have pains and a heavy feeling after my meals, a most disagreeable taste in my mouth. If I ate anything with butter, oil or grease, I would spit it up. I began to have regular sick headache. I had used pills and tablets, but after a course of these, I would be constipated. It just seemed to tear my stomach all up. I found they were no good at all for my trouble. I heard

ONE CENT A DOSE

LABOR LEGISLATION OF 1916

Perhaps the most striking legislation reproduced in the annual volume of labor laws of the Bureau of Labor Statistics, which has just been issued as Bulletin 213, is the act of Congress establishing 8 hours as a standard work day for employees operating trains on steam railroads in interstate commerce. Next to this may be placed the federal statute excluding from interstate traffic the products of the labor of children employed in mines or quarries under the age of 16, or in mills, canneries, factories, etc., under the age of 14 years; the hours of labor of children under 16 years of age must not exceed 8 per day, nor may such children work between 7 p. m. and 6 a. m.

State laws affecting the employment of children are also strengthened, as in South Carolina, where the age for employment in factories is raised to 12 to 14 years, while in Maryland the 14-year limit is extended to practically all industries except canning and packing. Laws regulating the employment of women are comparatively numerous in 1916, and it may be said that laws affecting women and children constitute the largest single group of laws appearing in the bulletin. In addition to statutes, there are important orders of industrial and welfare commissions fixing wages and hours for these classes of employees, and regulating the conditions of employment generally. Of special interest is a rule issued by the Oregon Industrial Welfare Commission fixing the hours of labor, minimum wages, and learning periods of women and minors, including males up to 18 years in a wide range of employments. This is in compliance with the provisions of the minimum wage law of the State, which was recently declared constitutional by a tie vote of the Supreme Court of the United States, one justice not voting.

The effect of federal legislation on State action is apparent in the enactment of liability laws for railroad employees in South Carolina and Virginia, which follow in large degree the pattern of the federal statute on the subject. Most of the States of the Union have compensation laws, reproduced up to the end of the year 1916 in Bulletin No. 203 of the Bureau of Labor Statistics. A few States retain the liability doctrine, and the action of South Carolina and Virginia tends at least to harmonize federal and State practice, though not coming up to the compensation standards generally accepted.

As affecting the employee and the public as well, a few States have laws prohibiting the giving or receiving of tips. Such a law was enacted by the Tennessee legislature of 1915 and vetoed by the Governor. This vote was subsequently held void, and the act is reproduced in the present bulletin. Tennessee is the sixth State to have a law of this kind.

The idea of a requirement of artisans of certain classes to secure licenses continues to spread, laws of this relating to barbers, plumbers, horseshoers, chauffeurs, electricians, and moving picture machine operators having been enacted during the year. The physical conditions of employment also received attention in the enactment of a number of regulations affecting factories and mines; while the settlement of labor disputes is the subject of an act of the South Carolina legislature. The latter act provides for arbitration on request, and over a board of conciliation power to make investigations on its own motion, with compulsory attendance of witnesses, including the production of books and documents; a report may be published if a majority of the board approve.

Besides the text of the laws, Bulletin 213 contains a readable review of the acts in considerable detail, and a cumulative index covering the complete body of the labor legislation other than workmen's compensation laws as compiled by the United States Department of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics. Only 11 States legislated; and the Federal Congress had regular sessions last year; 5 other State legislatures met in special session.

COMMITTEE IS ORGANIZED IN BERKE TO ASSIST AMERICAN SOLDIERS WHO MAY BE CAPTURED AND SENT TO PRISON CAMPS

New York, August 26.—Plans for the caring of the interests of Americans who may be captured by the Germans and held in prison camps have been drawn by the American Red Cross. It was announced today.

The center of activity of the work will be Berne, Switzerland. A prisoner's relief committee has been organized there and Ellis L. Dresel, of the American Legation, is the supervisor.

Mr. Dresel probably is better qualified for the work than any other American. From the outbreak of the war in 1914 up to the severing of diplomatic relations between the United States and Germany he served as an attaché of the American Embassy in Berlin.

One of his duties was relief work for subjects of Entente countries in German prison camps.

HOME-READING COURSE FOR CITIZEN-SOLDIERS

(Issued by the War Department and all rights to reprint reserved.)

This course of thirty daily lessons is offered to the men selected for service in the National Army, as a practical help in getting started in the right way. It is informal in tone and does not attempt to give binding rules and directions. These are contained in the various manuals and regulations of the United States Army, to which this course is merely introductory.

LESSON NO. 11.THE TEAM LEADERS.

(Preceding Lessons: 1. Your Post of Honor. 2. Making Good as a Soldier. 3. Nine Qualities of a Soldier. 4. Getting Ready for Camp. 5. First Days in Camp. 6. Cleanliness in Camp. 7. Your Health. 8. Marching and Care of Feet. 9. Your Equipment and Arms. 10. Recreation in Camp. 11. Playing the Game. 12. Team Work in the Army. 13. Grouping Men into Teams.)

Most of the men in the Army are private soldiers. Their work is of the greatest importance and deserves all the respect and praise which it receives. A great many men in the National Army, however, will be ambitious to rise to higher ranks. They will find plenty of encouragement and of opportunities for promotion.

If you are one of these men, don't allow yourself to forget the fact that you can win promotion only by proving your fitness in each duty entrusted to you. It is a rare case when a man is "jumped" several ranks ahead. As a rule, he climbs from one rank to the next higher rank after having demonstrated in each position his intelligence, honor, and reliability.

Even as a private, you may win advancement to the grade known as first-class private. About one-fourth of the privates in each company may be given the rating "first-class," which means in substance that they are regarded as skilled and trustworthy soldiers.

Noncommissioned Officers

From the first-class privates are usually chosen the corporals. These are the squad leaders. They are appointed by the commanding officer of the regiment on the recommendation of the commanding officer of the company. In addition to the regularly appointed corporals each company may have one lance corporal. This is a temporary appointment made by the company commander for the purpose of testing the ability of some private whom he is thinking of recommending for permanent appointment. In case the lance corporal does not make a good showing, or for any other reason, he may be returned to the ranks when the commander of the company sees fit.

Next above the corporal in rank comes the sergeant. There are usually 9 to 11 sergeants in a company. Unless a sergeant has some other duty assigned to him, he is normally the leader of a platoon. There are, however, many special duties constantly assigned to sergeants. The first sergeant (in Army slang, the "top sergeant"), for example, keeps certain company records, forms the company in ranks, transmits orders from the company commander, and performs many other important tasks. The supply sergeant sees to bringing up supplies of all kinds to the company. The mess sergeant looks after food. The stable sergeant is responsible for the proper care of horses and mules. The color sergeant carries the national or regimental colors. There are many other grades within the rank of sergeant which can not be described here. You will gradually become familiar with them during your army experience.

Commissioned Officers

Sergeants and corporals are known as noncommissioned officers, because they are appointed by their regimental commanding officer. Officers of higher ranks are known as commissioned, since they hold their rank by virtue of a commission issued to them under authority of the President of the United States. The commissioned officer is thus on quite a different footing from the "noncom" (noncommissioned officer). He obtains his rank and authority from a higher source. He is treated with respect which is of a different character from that extended to a noncommissioned officer. This is one of the fundamental things in Army organization.

Lowest in rank among the commissioned officers is the second lieutenant. Above him comes the first lieutenant and above him the captain. These are the three "company officers." The captain is ordinarily the commanding officer of a company, while the lieutenants might be described as assistant captains. In the absence or disability of the captain, however, the first lieutenant takes his place and has full command, and in the absence or disability of both the second lieutenant takes the command.

Next above the captain is the major, whose proper command is a battalion. A step higher is the lieutenant colonel and above him the colonel, the commanding officer of a regiment. The lieutenant colonel ordinarily assists the colonel and in his absence takes the command. In case both the lieutenant colonel and the colonel are disabled or absent, the senior major takes the command.

The General Officers

Above the colonel is the brigadier general, whose proper command is a brigade. Above the brigadier general is the major general, the highest rank at present held by any officer of the American Army.

One general, however, serves as Chief of Staff of the Army. As such he supervises all troops and departments of the military service. He in turn reports to the Secretary of War. The Secretary of War in his turn acts under the general direction of the President of the United States, who is the Commander in Chief.

The chain of authority reaches in an unbroken line all the way from the President to the newest recruit. If the President chooses to give an order which in any way affects the recruit, it passes through the Secretary of War, Chief of Staff, major general, brigadier general, colonel, major, captain, sergeant, and possibly corporal until the recruit is reached and the order obeyed. Ordinarily only the most general instructions are issued by the higher officers. The manner in which these instructions shall be carried out is left to the judgment of officers in closer contact with the troops and with a more intimate knowledge of the conditions under which they are working.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE NOTES

Chamber of Commerce reports quite a few of our citizens availing themselves of the opportunity to solve the "help" problem. The Bureau of Information is established at the Chamber of Commerce, for your convenience. We have a "Schedule of Local Events" make use of it, arrange your meetings so they don't conflict with the other organizations and you will enjoy a large attendance. We have quite a bit of Historical, Recent and New Data on file at the Chamber of Commerce office, that we suggest you make use of in entertaining friends, advertising your city or in your endeavor to locate new citizens or industries.

If it is a package or passenger you want to send via the Auto Bus line, we want you to feel at liberty to make use of the Chamber of Commerce phone or headquarters. If you have a good suggestion that will benefit our city in general, you are doing it an injustice if you fail to offer it; offer it to the Chamber of Commerce, we'll see if we can't make it a reality.

DON'T WAIT
Take Advantage of a Maysville Citizen's Experience.

When the back begins to ache. Don't wait until backache becomes chronic. "Till kidney troubles develop; Profit by a Maysville woman's experience. Mrs. R. W. Lauderback, W. Second St., Maysville, says: "Two years ago I was suffering with kidney trouble and had been for a long time. I was nervous and dizzy and had severe headaches. My kidneys were too frequent in action and annoyed me greatly. I had a dull ache across the small of my back and my back was so lame at times that I could hardly bend one way or the other. Some one advised me to use Doan's Kidney Pills and I got a box at Wood & Son's Drug Store. They helped me at once and continued use entirely cured me of the trouble." Mrs. Lauderback is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS, the same that cured Mrs. Lauderback—the remedy backed by home testimony. 60c all stores. RED CROSS ON ROOF OF A HOSPITAL SEEN BY GERMAN AIR-
MAN WHO ATTACKED
BUILDING—PROOF OF PREMEDIATION FOUND

Paris, August 25—One of the hospitals behind Verdun, on which German airplanes dropped incendiary bombs a week ago, is in Vadelaincourt. The fire caused by the bombs spread rapidly to the whole building, and the glare showed more plainly than ever the large red crosses painted on the roof.

The aviator threw a second bomb, which demolished a pavilion in which were performing operations. The surgeons, nurses and wounded were obliged to leave the building.

Proof of premeditation on the part of the German authorities in making these attacks is furnished by a photograph found on a German aviator brought down at Dead Man Hill. The photograph represented the Vadelaincourt Hospital, with the Red Cross sign indicated clearly.

FRENCH TROOPS

Again Advance Before Verdun—Thousand Prisoners are Taken in Gallant Dash Between Mortormont and La Chaume—Italians Continue to Press Austrians Back.

Grand Headquarters of the French Army in France, Sunday, August 26—The gallantry of the French troops before Verdun carried them forward again today when they attacked between Mortormont farm and La Chaume wood and advanced another thousand prisoners. The territory to the south of Beaumont heights and woods almost to the village of Beaumont fell into their hands notwithstanding the most severe German counter attacks which came under a vigorous fire from the French artillery.

The first attack in the center was checked for a time, but the resistance of numerous nests of machine guns was overcome by the wonderful dash of the French troops, who would not be denied. The German artillery, which seems to be weakening, has bombarded heavily of late before retreating under pressure, but the firing has been wild and little harm has been done.

Somewhat slowly, but nevertheless surely, the Italians are breaking down the resistance of the Austrians in the region around Monte Santo, north of Gorizia, and making their way eastward toward the border of upper Carniola.

In their endeavor to hold back the Italians, the Austrians have brought to this sector large numbers of fresh men and at last reports the fighting was most intense, but the Italians having overcome the resistance of the Austrians at various points.

Little Given But—Virtually nothing is being vouchsafed in the Italian official communications which even approximately records the advances general Cadorna's men have made since they began their offensive from the region of Tolmino to the sea, the Italian war office probably desiring to conceal from the enemy the exact objectives it has in view.

Mr. Andy Boyd left yesterday afternoon for Ashland to hold down the job of second trick dispatcher at the C. & O. passenger depot at that place for the next few days.

Mr. Robert L. Hoeflich left yesterday afternoon for an extended trip to New York City. While there he will buy much of his stock of dry goods and notions for fall.

SYMPATHY STRIKE

May Be Called at Ashland To Aid C. & O. Clerks—Commissioner of Conciliation From Washington City Getting a Line On Things.

Ashland, Ky., August 28—The strike of clerks and freight handlers at the C. & O. freight depot in this city is on and a considerable congestion of freight is the result. The strikers claim that they have right and justice on their side and that they are going to win in the end. They also state other affiliated organizations will strike in sympathy if the strike here is not properly adjusted.

Superintendent Harris of the Ashland division of the C. & O. stated to an independent representative today that the work was adjusting itself and that the new men brought here from office in Cincinnati, Richmond, Hinton and other points, were experts at the business and that they would soon have everything running smoothly. He also stated that the efforts of Mr. Forrester the labor organizer of Chicago, to have the clerks at Russell strike in sympathy with the strike here was not effective, as the night force quit and were off about an hour, but that the day force was working as usual today.

Mr. Fred G. Davis, commissioner of conciliation of Washington, D. C., is here getting a line on the situation and collecting the facts from both sides.

Considerable confusion was caused at the freight depot this morning when the announcement was made that no freight would be received on the platform until after ten o'clock. This caused a great many of the loaded wagons to remain standing and in some instances the loads were hauled back to the ware rooms from whence they came. We do not know what the action will be tomorrow, whether freight will be held off until 10 o'clock. The local office is short of truckers as well as clerks and for this reason, congestion was rather heavy in all departments.

TWENTY-FIVE-YEAR-OLD STEP-FATHER EXEMPTED

Versailles, Ky., August 27—Milton Tyler, colored, who gave his age as 25 years, but who did not appear to be more than 21, today filed a claim with the Woodford County Exemption Board for exemption from military service on the ground that he is the sole support of a wife and ten children. An investigation proved that Tyler's statement was true. Several years ago he married a widow who had seven children and three other children have been born to them.

Mrs. William McCarthy has returned from a week's visit with relatives and friends in Cincinnati.

OUR COLORED CITIZENS

Rev. Robert Jackson, pastor of Bethel Baptist Church has been granted a vacation of fifteen days. He left Monday afternoon for Lexington and other points in central part of the state, after which he will leave for Atlanta, Ga., to attend the National Baptist Convention which convenes there September 5th.

Mr. Fred L. Dorsey and Miss Lena Mae Tabor were married Saturday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Beatty. The home was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The bride wore a beautiful white net over satin, while the veil was held in place with white roses, the groom being attired in the regulation suit of black. Only members of the family and a few friends were present. The Rev. Robert Jackson performed the ceremony in his usual impressive manner. The happy pair left Sunday afternoon for Benton Harbor, Michigan, where they will reside.

WILSON ORDERS EXPORT CONTROLS DRAWN TIGHTER

Washington, August 27—President Wilson tightened the government's control of exports tonight by issuing an order forbidding the shipment of any goods to European neutral countries except under license and by extending the lists for which license is required in shipment to the allies and neutrals other than European countries to include cotton, all meats, sugar and most of America's other export commodities.

In a statement accompanying his proclamation, the president said one of the intentions of the government will be to see that no American products are made "the occasion of benefit to the enemy, either directly, or indirectly." Officials interpreted the order as forecasting a vigorous use of the export control as a war weapon and a policy of the strictest rationing of countries contiguous to Germany.

Formally Prohibited

Exports to Germany and her allies also are formally prohibited by the President's order and this is understood to mean that the export control is about to supersede the British system of giving letters of assurance for American cargoes. Up to now there has been nothing except the British blockade to prevent the shipment of American goods to Germany. Tonight's order in this respect accomplishes one of the purposes sought in the trading-with-the-enemy bill pending in congress.

Adjustments Restore Health Quickly and Permanently

Nature is the Chiropractor's only aid — adjustments release the pressure from the nerve and make the way free for Nature to do her part in sending mental impulses through them to make and keep the body well.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

At the recent special session of the Legislature of Kentucky a law was passed levying a tax of one-tenth of one per cent on the individual deposits of banks and providing that the bank may charge the tax to the depositors.

We take this means of notifying the public that out of its own funds and therefore all money deposited in this bank will be free from all State, County and City Taxes.

This Bank Will Pay This Tax for Its Depositors

Your money in this bank, on and after September 1, 1917, will be tax free, but will be subject to a tax of 40 cents on each $100, if you keep it at home.

We will continue to pay interest at the rate of 3 Per Cent. in our Savings Department.
